Third Term Opens January 21, 1896.

Fourth Term Opens March 31, 1896.

Annual Examination for Admission to Senior Class,
September 2, 1895.

REQUIREMENTS OF ADMISSION.

All persons of good moral character are entitled to enrollment in any class, at any time, on payment of tuition at the rate of $1.20 per week.

Candidates for the degree of LL. B. will be admitted to the senior class during the first (September) term only. To be entitled to such admission the applicant must have attended this law school at least three terms of the Junior year and maintained good class standing, or, pass satisfactory examination on the studies of the Junior year, or, present the proper certificate that he has accomplished the work of the Junior year or its equivalent, at another law school, and pay $48 tuition. This sum may be divided into four payments and paid by the term, if the student prefers to do so.

EXAMINATIONS.

Examinations for admission to the Senior class will be held on the Monday immediately preceding the beginning of the first term of the law year. Term examinations will also be held when deemed necessary by the faculty.

BOOKS.

Students must provide themselves with books. They cannot be rented as in other departments.

A well selected Law Library is kept in the Law Building, and is free to students of both classes.

TUITION AND EXPENSES.

Tuition for term of ten weeks, $12. This includes any studies that the student may desire to take in the Normal Department.

Board and room rent for ten weeks, $15.

$27 pays for board, room rent and tuition for ten weeks.

$108 pays board, room rent and tuition for one year of forty weeks in Law Department.

COURSE OF STUDY.

Junior Class.—Kent's Commentaries, Cooley on Torts, Parsons on Contracts, May's Criminal Law, Tyler's edition of Stephen on Common Law Pleading, Heard's Equity Pleading, Bliss on Code Pleading, Greenleaf on Evidence, Vol. I.
