MISSION AND EDITORIAL POLICY

The purpose of the Midwest Social Sciences Journal is to promote and advance the social sciences in Indiana by publishing the highest quality social science theory and research papers available. MSSJ recognizes and supports the many diverse perspectives and methods across the several social sciences; it neither espouses nor champions any specific ideological, theoretical, methodological, or political commitments.

MSSJ is committed to intellectual integrity, rigorous standards of scholarship, and rational and civil discourse. It encourages the presentation and free exchange of diverse viewpoints and seeks to foster open and critical inquiry that privileges no particular standpoint while operating within the limits of a standard of discourse and reason that distinguishes between the pursuit of knowledge and truth versus mere assertions of dogma.

Although every effort will be made to publish issues that represent a fair balance of scholarship across the entire spectrum of social science disciplines, the Journal's first priority will always be to publish the best social science research available at any given time, regardless of disciplinary representation. Toward this end, papers will be accepted for editorial review and publication in the annual issue of the Journal at any time of year, whether or not they were presented at the Annual Conference. Persons who submit articles for review are expected to adhere to Author Submission Guidelines detailed elsewhere in this Journal and online at <https://scholar.valpo.edu/mssj/>.

The Journal was published annually both in print and online in the autumn from Volume 14 to Volume 19. Beginning with Volume 20, the Journal is available only digitally. Papers submitted for possible publication are subject to a double-blind review process using Bepress. The editor alone is responsible for making the final decision on all manuscripts and content for publication in the Journal. Their decision on publication content is not subject to review by any other member, officer, or body of the Indiana Academy of the Social Sciences.
