Valparaiso College and Northern Indiana Normal SCHOOL

VALPARAISO, INDIANA.

Largest and Best Equipped Normal School in the United States.

The institution opened its 29th year with a larger attendance than that of any preceding year, the enrollment in all of the regular classes being very much greater than ever before.

THE AIM OF THE INSTITUTION is to give to all, both rich and poor, an opportunity to accomplish the greatest amount of work in the shortest time, and at the least expense.

THE CHARACTER OF THE WORK is of such a high grade that, for a number of years, the credits from the school have been accepted in the best universities everywhere. It has fully demonstrated the fact that the highest grade of instruction does not necessarily require a high rate of expenditure.

There are 19 departments in this school. Each is a school within itself, and, while there are other departments, they make this none the less a SPECIAL TRAINING SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS, A SPECIAL COMMERCIAL, OR A SPECIAL SCHOOL OF PHARMACY. Each department strengthens the others.

The high grade of work done in the Department of Pedagogy has received the commendation of educators everywhere. There is no other school in the country giving more attention to professional work. Teachers and those preparing to teach have here the very best advantages for receiving training in the latest and most approved methods.

What is true of this department is true of every department. Each is thoroughly equipped and placed in charge of specialists as instructors.

EXPENSES ARE LESS THAN AT ANY OTHER PLACE. Tuition $10 per term. Good board and well furnished room $1.50 to $1.90 per week. Same rates in private families as in Dormitories.

Catalogue giving full particulars of school mailed free.

The Benn Pitman System of Phonography.

There is no question whatever of the truth of the statement that the Benn Pitman System is more generally used than any other in this country; at least this would appear to be true, from the reports made to this Bureau of various institutions teaching shorthand.—HON. W. T. HARRIS, Commissioner of Education (Washington, D. C., November 10, 1898).

The following is a graphic summary of the Table of Statistics on the Teaching of Shorthand in the United States, in the Bureau of Education Circular of Information No. 1, 1893, pages, 40 to 141:

Benn Pitman, 747 teachers, 34.7 %.
Graham, 364 teachers, 16.8 %.
Munson, 228 teachers, 10.6 %.
Cross, 185 teachers, 8.6 %.
Isaac Pitman, 123 teachers, 5.7 %.
Lindsley, 61 teachers, 2.8 %.
Perrin, 64 teachers, 2.9 %.
Scott-Brown, 52 teachers, 2.4 %.
Longley, 52 teachers, 2.4 %.
McKee, 36 teachers, 1.6 %.
Pitman (unspecified), 35 teachers, 1.6 %.
Moran, 30 teachers, 1.3 %.
Sloan-Duployan, 24 teachers, 1.1 %.
Besides 38 others, each between 10 and 20 teachers.

To supply the increasing demand for stenographers, schools of shorthand and typewriting have been established in various parts of the country, and, with few exceptions, all business colleges now have a "department of shorthand." A number of systems are taught, but that of Benn Pitman is more generally used than any other in this country, and may be called the American System.—Extract from the Report of the Commissioner of Education (Washington, D. C., for the year 1887-88, page 927).

Chas. C. Tobias, who is traveling as the manager of Harry R. Pore, the well known elocutionist and humorous entertainer, was on the Hill last week guest of friends.

Rodney McDonald, of Ashland, Wis., and Miss Grannon, of Lafayette, were married Wednesday, the 6th inst., by Rev. Martin Luther. The groom is a popular Law student.

Mr. Shields spent his vacation at the home of Paul Hayes, two miles from the city. He reports a good time, as he went hunting and managed to get one little rabbit.

Mrs. Katie Mundt has moved from Mason City, Ills, to 91 S. Locust St., this city. Mrs. Mundt is the mother of Herman Mundt, the popular drug clerk at the College Pharmacy.

Chas. Schatzley, of Wheatfield, is attending the College. He will remain during the winter and in the spring will probably accept a position which has been offered him by the Chicago & Northwestern railroad company.

The Senior and Junior lawyers held a social in Star and Crescent halls Thursday evening, November 7th. About one hundred persons were present. The evening was spent in social games, and at 10 o'clock full justice was done to a splendid lunch. They adjourned about twelve o'clock, all being well pleased with the evening.

A few days ago Bud Kellar, a well known student was robbed of $42, the money being taken from his room at Corboy hall. Kellar played amateur detective in the case with so much success that the man was apprehended at the depot just as he was about to take a train to go out of town. The evidence which Mr. Kellar had gathered was conclusive, the thief confessed the robbery and returned the money to its lawful owner. He was allowed to depart in peace.

Clifford Kitchen was up from Harvey, Ill., to witness East Lynne.

We are glad to announce that C. A. Lanigan, of Union hall, was master in the struggle he had with the grip.

It is rumored that the matrimonial bird of prey is soaring above the heads of several more of the Law boys, eager for victims.

Stiles hall, formerly "Libby Prison," has been brightened on the outside by a liberal application of white and light blue paint.

The law firm of Mellville & Lorey, of Chesterton, was represented here the early part of the week by the senior member, H. A. Mellville.

Owen Butcher, advance agent and manager for the play Under the Laurels, is making things hustle, and there is the assurance of a large house for Saturday evening.

Remember that the Crescent literary society gives its first program of the term this Friday evening in Crescent hall. Admittance to these entertainments is always free.

M. D. Mackoy, who graduated from the Pharmacy department in 1900, returned last Saturday and has taken up some special work in the College preparatory to entering a dental college.

Geo. W. Vann, a former student of the College, was here from St. Paul, Minn., a few days ago as a guest of friends on the Hill. He left for El Paso, Tex., where he goes in search of health.

Ralph Barnes, a former student in the Commercial department of the College and who is taking a course in the Chicago College of Dental Surgery, was on the Hill last Sunday shaking hands with old friends.

The Giants tied the West Division High School football team in the game last Saturday. It was a clean, fast exhibition of good ball, and the score was 6 to 6. The Valpo boys will test their skill against the team from the Chicago Dental college Thanksgiving day. This will be about the most spirited contest of the season. It is said that the visitors will bring with them a brass band and one hundred "rooters."

The many friends of the genial Geo. E. Baker will be glad to hear from him again. Mr. Baker entered the N. I. N. S. in the fall of '96, and graduated with the Scientific class in '98. He finished the Elocution course in '99 and entered the Law department, from which he graduated this year. He has recently been elected to the legal bar of Oregon, and will soon open an office in Portland for the practice of law. Judging from George's record in school we feel safe in saying that his success is assured from the start.

THE COLLEGE CURRENT.

ITEMS NOT ALTOGETHER OF A SERIOUS NATURE.

E. W. Barnhart has a "Kase" in court which is claiming his attention.

Everybody is wondering what is the matter with the Scientific class this year that it has not elected officers.

F. C. Klein loves a Sunday afternoon stroll. A fair damsel on College avenue, seems to be the center of attraction.

It is said that one of the boys who rooms in Eiss hall became so frightened on Hallowe'en that he hid himself for two or three hours.

Elroy Converse and Mr. Alvord's minds seem to run in the same channel, and the course of that channel is in the direction of South hall.

Notice: Anyone finding the candy that was taken from my overcoat pocket, during the Lawyers' social will please return the same and oblige, Willis Rowe.

McGonigal wishes that a certain couple from Columbia hall would not wake the inmates of South hall by pumping; also not disturb the matron on Sunday night.

Owen Butcher says its no laughing matter when a fellow takes his girl to church and then has to be callded away for a few moments, and to come back and find his companion missing and after looking every place at last find her in some other seat.

Everybody on College Hill has been wondering why M. E. Vallandingham, secretary of East hall, wears a little skull cap all the time. The explanation is simple. He had his hair cut short and the cap is to protect his cranium from the fierce fall breezes.

Baker Bros. would like to cut Urshall's hair by the day. ¶ Ask Pat Donnally if he knows Mary Ann. ¶ Someone told some other person that a young man from Mound hall was in love with a fair maid at Union hall, but for some unknown reason this pretty little romance suddenly ceased, and the poor fellow complained of having the headache constantly. For the next chapter ask Mr. Agee.

"Our Accursed Spelling, What to do With it" is the title of a book of 142 pages which has just reached our table. The book is edited and published by E. O. Vaile, Oak Park, Chicago, Ill., and is a compilation of the answers to the question by seven of the greatest scholars in the science of philology, living or dead. In addition to this discussion the book contains other valuable matter along the line of phonetic spelling. It is just such a book as the advocates of the simplifying of our spelling have long needed.

Death

We are in receipt of a clipping from the Oceanaian, published at Hart, Mich., which chronicles the death of Will P. Sackrider. Mr. Sackrider took the Teacher's course in the N. I. N. S. previous to '87, and afterward became a successful teacher in Oceana county, Mich. The paper referred to above prints a very good likeness of the stricken young man and gives a column to his praise. Mrs. A. J. Bowser, to whom we are indebted for the clipping, and who was a schoolmate of Mr. Sackrider, says that one could not speak too highly of him, as he was such a splendid boy and man.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The College Current is for sale at the down-town book store of J. A. McConahay, opposite the postoffice.

Last month we made a request for the names of pupils who have gone home so that we could mail them sample copies. A number of names have been given us. If you receive a sample copy this month it is because a friend of yours has asked us to send it.

"Form A 1" is a blank which stands for a Special Offer we are making to students who have recently left the College. If you receive one in your paper this month, we hope that you will recognize the liberality of the offer, fill out the blank at once, and send it in to the office of publication.

We have recently added facilities which will make it possible for us to get out a better paper than ever before, but we are not satisfied yet. Besides giving all the news of the Hill, we want to hear from all our subscribers and friends of the paper who are away from here. Write us a long letter if you have the time; if not, a short one will be appreciated. Let us know what school work you did while here, and what you are doing now, or anything else which you think would make news.

If your society or class is not represented in The Current it is because no one of the members has given us the items. We want the officers of the different societies and classes in the College to make free use of the columns of The Current for giving news which will be of interest to the students who are here, and also to the many friends of the school all over the country.

No subscriber should think of going home without first calling at the office and having the address on his paper changed.

If subscribers to The Current will report irregularity in the delivery of their papers the publishers will take it as a favor.

Boarders on College Hill need not fear that the supply of potatoes will fail. Since the advent of the Michigan crop the market price of the succulent tubers has taken quite a drop.

One of the best things about school and college life is that the bell which strikes the hour for rising, for recitations, or for lectures, teaches habits of promptness and method in conducting the affairs of life.

DON'T FORGET TO WRITE HOME OCCASIONALLY.

During the press of work in school students are likely to forget the duties they owe to the friends at home. Who of all people could be more interested in what their boy or girl is doing than the loving father and mother? It is they who have watched you from early childhood until now, and perhaps this is the first time you have been away from home. Is it not natural that the same loving hearts who have cared for your best welfare during the time you were not able to care for yourself, we say, is it not natural that these same loving hearts should yearn for you still? It is not enough that you are getting along well in your studies and that some day you will go out from school to be a credit to and more than ever the pride of your loving parents. They want to hear from you once in awhile. What matters if the hand which has grown stiff in toil for you cannot write elegant answers to your letters? Write anyway. Tell the folks about the things that most interest you. It will interest them. Tell them about the school, your studies, your friends, your triumphs, even your reverses. They will receive them with the most sympathetic hearts. Again we say, Don't forget to write home occasionally.

AMONG THE SOCIETIES

ILLINOIS SOCIETY.

By the river gently flowing, Illinois, Illinois,
O'er the prairie verdant growing, Illinois, Illinois,
Comes an echo o'er the breeze
Rustling through the leafy trees;
And its mellow tones are these, Illinois, Illinois,
And its mellow tones are these, Illinois.

The Illinois society held its last meeting of the fall term Saturday morning, October 26th. The first part of the session was devoted to the election of officers, which resulted as follows: President, Mr. Erickson; vice president, Mr. Pugh; secretary, Miss Corey; treasurer, Mr. Wilson; chorister, Mr. Chalfin; assistant chorister, Miss Mary Morgan. In turning the meeting over to the new president, Mr. Agee, the retiring officer, made a neat speech in which he cordially thanked the members for their hearty support during his term in the chair. After a short speech from each of the new officers the regular program of the morning was taken up.

Mr. Weber gave a good talk, Miss Pugh rendered a difficult piano solo, Miss Saffel read a paper on one of Illinois illustrious sons, John A. Logan, Mr. Thompson gave a comic recitation touching on our new possessions, and William Way, the tallest member of the society, closed the program with Some Things You Will Not See in Illinois. It was a well prepared description of travels in the mountains of the West, and was delivered in an attractive manner.

Mr. Ridgeley, Mr. Weber and Mr. Frye were appointed to constitute the program committee. It will be their duty to prepare programs so they can be read a week in advance.

Wilfred M. Liese, Daniel Stipp and others, former members of the society, were present, and they very graciously responded to requests for informal talks.

STAR SOCIETY.

The Star Society held its usual term election Saturday evening, October 9th. As there were two candidates for the office of vice president, Norbert Wanous and Lawrence Soliday, that part of the election was spirited. A. E. Martin made the nominating speech for Mr. Wanous, the successful candidate, and Rod McDonald nominated Mr. Soliday. The other officers were elected unanimously. After this the meeting adjourned with best wishes to the newly elected officers.

The Star people held their social in Star and Crescent halls Saturday evening, October 26th. About one hundred persons were present, including members and guests. The evening was spent in social games, etc. At about ten o'clock refreshments were served. One pleasing feature of the evening was a guessing contest. Miss Willis won the first prize in guessing the names of authors and was awarded a copy of Lucile. The prize for guessing the names of states was won by W. F. Liese, and he was awarded a diminutive sample of Old Glory.

PHARMACY SOCIAL.

The Pharmacy class gave a very delightful social in Star and Crescent hall Thursday evening, October 24th. At the beginning a very fine program was rendered. Mr. Bonner played a piano selection, Miss Cooper gave a vocal solo, Mr. Jones recited Aunt Taber at the Opera, Mr. Farlow sang A Stein Song, Mr. Ross played a violin solo of his own selection. Mr. Lawless presented It, Mr. Thatcher played a cornet solo, Mr. Raymond recited Aux Italiens. The last number on the program was a vocal solo by Mr. Polk. The latter part of the evening was devoted to social intercourse, games, etc. Ice cream, cake, bananas, grapes and pickles were served. All those who were fortunate enough to be present enjoyed every part of the evening's entertainment.

TRANS-MISSISSIPPI SOCIETY.

This society, as its name implies, is composed of students of the College whose homes are west of the Mississippi river. Well known in the school as good students, these people do not neglect the social side of their natures. The social which was given in Fraternity hall on Saturday evening, October 26th, was a most enjoyable affair to all present. The evening was spent in games and in getting the members and their friends acquainted. The social committee did its work well. A fine supper was served.

SENIOR LAW BRIEFS.

The Senior law class launched Tuesday morning on the subject of Negligence, with Mr. A. L. Jones at the helm.

The social given by the Senior class was a rousing success. Everybody present reports a very pleasant time.

The majority of the Seniors will be seen sporting a beautiful walking cane in the near future, it having been adopted as the class emblem.

THE COLLEGE CURRENT.

Charles Borders who was called to his home at Winamac, Ind., on business, causing his absence for two weeks, is again with us.

The class elected Merrill Martindale president, Walter Harrold vice president, Norbert Wanous secretary, and Rod McDonald treasurer, to serve for the ensuing term.

A. A. Worsley has returned to us again after spending three weeks stumping the State of Nebraska in the interest of the Fusion ticket. Mr. Worsley is an excellent talker.

The Junior Law Class extended a challenge to the Senior Class for a joint debate, which was readily accepted, and the following speakers were chosen to represent the Senior Class: A. A. Worsley, Fred E. White and I. Theo. Richardson.

Geo. W. Rauch, who took the Junior law course here in '98-'99 is again in school to finish the Senior course. It is remembered by many that at the beginning of the fall term in '98 Mr. Rauch's classmates honored him by electing him class president. He took an important part in the commencement exercises of the Law school in May, '99.

William E. Isley and Henry Buellesfield, two legal lights of the Northern Indiana Law School, left Thursday morning for Brazil, Ind., where they will open a law office. Both are possessed with much more than ordinary ability, and we predict for them a successful career in their chosen profession. They made many warm friends while here who regret their leaving, but who join in wishing them success.

Two of our members, Rod McDonald and I. Theo. Richardson, have already gotten tired of single blessedness and have taken unto themselves roommates of the fairer sex. We join in wishing them a long, happy, successful life. The question among the boys now is as to who will be the next to take the matrimonial vows, but as yet it hasn't been decided as to whether it will be McFarlane, Johnson or Barnhart.

CATHOLIC SOCIETY.

The Catholic society held its social in Recital Hall on Saturday evening of the eighth week. As usual it was well attended and was a decided success. The program was exceptionally fine. It consisted of the following numbers: Music by the Roessler Mandolin Club; Address by the President, Mr. Weber; Piano Solo, Miss Hagan; Recitation, Miss Bell; Vocal Duet, Misses Morgan, Recitation, Miss Leom; Recitation, Mr. Agee. After the program refreshments were served, games played, and other amusements indulged in until a late hour.

On the Saturday of the ninth week the society elected the following officers for the following term: Pres., Mr. Murphy; Vice Pres., Mr. Kerker; Sec., Miss Hastings; Treas., Mr. Henan; First marshal, Mr. McClintock; Second marshal, Mr. Capesius.

This society holds its weekly meetings in room "A" each Saturday evening, and all Catholic students are welcome.

BOGARTE ELOCUTION.

The Bogarte Elocution society is an organized society which meets and gives regular programs Wednesday evenings of alternate weeks. The chief aim is to afford better opportunities for advancing work in elocution and oratory than is usually provided in schools and colleges. The membership is limited to those who are taking the regular course in Elocution, or graduates therefrom.

The last regular program of the fall term was rendered Wednesday evening, October 30th, in Recital hall. There was a recitation by Mayne Jones, a pantomime by Edith N. Snover, a vocal solo by Clarence Austin, a recitation by Wm. A. Dilley, an instrumental trio by Messrs. Paddock, Rivers and Dunbar, and a medley by the Bogarte Dramatic company. This program was highly appreciated by a large audience. The medley was given by the same members of the dramatic company who appeared in A Noble Outcast.

At the conclusion of the program officers were elected for the coming term. Wm. A. Dilley was elected president, John King vice president, and Miss Belle Hittson secretary.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

THE STATE CONVENTION—A LITTLE RED SCHOOL HOUSE SOCIAL.

The State Convention of the Young Women's Christian Association was held at Franklin, Ind., from Oct. 31 to Nov. 3. There were eighty delegates present at that convention. Fifteen College and three City Associations were represented. Three delegates, the Misses Case, Liese, and Shaefer, went from this Association. They gave their reports last Saturday evening at the union prayermeeting. They told of the benefit that they had derived from it and some of the helpful things that they had heard. It was evident that they had been benefited by being there, and we believe that in the coming terms our Association will be the stronger for their having gone.

The Young Women's Christian Association gave a social to the girls who had just come to school, and also to those girls who were not members of the Association. The social was called a Little Red School-house Social. The curiosity of the girls was aroused to know what kind of a social this would be, so they did as they were bidden—brought their little school buckets and came up to find out. Whatever else they found out they found that it was not a social of formalities but quite the opposite. Some of the girls formed a different opinion of the Y. W. C. A. from what they had ever had before. They laid aside their notion that the Y. W. C. A. girls are too stiff and dull to have fun. The social was held in Star and Crescent halls. About ninety girls were present.

Now is the time to have your Photos taken for Xmas. Miss Simon.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

CLASSES IN BIBLE STUDY GROWING IN SIZE AND NUMBER. — MISSIONARY CIRCLE. — SPECIAL SERIES OF LECTURES FOR MEN. — GENERAL SECRETARYSHIP A GO.

The first week of the term has been one of unusual activity among the members of the two associations. The very interesting meeting of last Saturday evening was a fitting close of the first week. The meeting was a joint one, and was conducted under the leadership of the returned delegation of the Y. W. C. A. from the state convention. The outlook for the Young Men's Christian association is more encouraging this term than ever before. At the rousing Bible study rally held last Sunday afternoon a large number of men enrolled with the various classes over the Hill.

Our missionary circle meets every Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, in the College private office.

To all our fellow students we wish especially to emphasize the importance of attending the Saturday evening lectures for men. These special meetings will be conducted by men of experience,—men who can talk to men. Some of these men come from Chicago, and in order to get back the same evening they have requested that we have the meetings at 5:30. The lectures will all be directed along the line of personal purity.

There is in this college a greater field for positive, good, Christian work than any other spot on earth. As yet our Association is not developed nearly to what it ought to be and to what it must be before we can hope to do efficient work. But we are glad to announce that the establishment of a general secretaryship is a go. A college general secretary has long been needed here. He will put his whole time to the work. He will plan and execute. He will be an organizer, and see that the various departments are properly developed, so that ere long the association of this school may rank with the best. We expect next year to lease a building and put this directly under his charge. Then we can have bath rooms, reading rooms, gymnasium, etc., all of which privileges our members may enjoy.

The members of the Advisory Board are: Prof. E. W. Agar, Chairman; Prof. M. L. Weems, Vice-chairman; Supt. A. A. Hughart, Secretary; Prof. M. E. Bogarte, Treasurer; L. L. Bomberger, Att'y at Law, Hammond, Ind.; Dr. S. A. Wilson, Chicago, Ill.

We wish to express our gratitude to all of these busy men for the work they have done and are doing. Considering the very favorable prospects, and the advancement which the Y. M. C. A. is making all over the world, and the deep respect with which men look upon it, we can but feel very much encouraged to go on, step by step, with ranks continually reinforced, to a higher, a more perfect condition of things.

A. A. Worsley discussed the "Trust Question and Its Solution," at Star hall Saturday evening, Nov. 16, 1901. He made an able speech and one that was very interesting.

PUBLIC DEBATE.

Mrs. Butler's class held its first public debate at the Law building Thursday evening, October 31. The question, Resolved, That Women Should Have the Right of Suffrage, was ably discussed. The affirmative speakers were Frank J. Williams, Messrs. Wilkins, Westlake, Dry and Laime; negative, Messrs. Perry, Alvord, Ayers and Cragle. The decision was awarded to the negative speakers.

JUNIOR LAW NOTES.

The dejected look on the faces of the Junior Law boys during the eighth week of the term was directly traceable to two hundred and thirty-five questions which Dean DeMotte gave the boys to look up.

The box social at the school of Miss Catherine Lewis, a former student of the College, was quite a success. The boxes were all sold and the receipts will be devoted to the library fund. Rod McDonald, the progressive law student, acted as auctioneer.

There was quite a misunderstanding in regard to the actions of one of the Law boys the other day. It was rumored that Chas. A. Shields had gone down to the court house after a license,—what kind of a license was left to be guessed. Later explanations showed that it was only a hunting license that the genial Charles was after. He had no difficulty in swearing that he is a resident of the state and qualified to have such valuable documents in his possession.

THE COLLEGE CURRENT.

PHARMIC NOTES.

The Pharmacy boys are wondering what went wrong with their president. He took only six girls to the social.

F. H. Gerhart, of the Pharmacy class, spent the days between the fall and winter terms at his home in Peru.

Geo. Remington, of the Pharmacy class is making for himself a reputation as an auctioneer. Ask any of the boys who accompanied him to the country one night toward the last of the fall term.

C. E. Betterton, of Petersburg, Ills., is a new acquisition to the Pharmacy class.

The many friends of the sociable Ellsworth Had-dock, who graduated with the '00 Pharmics, will be sorry to learn that on account of ill health he has been compelled to leave his home at Toledo, Ills., and to take a trip through the West.

J. Y. Ryder, of Sedley, has enrolled in the Pharmacy class. After finishing the course he expects to enter a dental college. It will be remembered that Mr. Ryder was here in '97, when he completed the Teachers' and Commercial courses and took nearly all of the Scientific course before leaving. He now has charge of Turner hall.

A NOBLE OUTCAST.

A Noble Outcast was rendered under the auspices of the Bogarte Elocution society Saturday evening, October 19th. The play is one of the best and most popular ever produced on the professional stage. It is thrilling throughout and abounds in exciting scenes and powerful climaxes. The cast of characters was carefully chosen from members of the Bogarte Elocution society who are making a specialty of dramatic art. Each member of the cast performed his or her part with credit to the society, and the frequent bursts of applause were evidences that their acting was appreciated. Special stage fittings and scenery were used. Prof. Aug. Wolf's popular orchestra rendered excellent music during the intervals.

EAST LYNNE.

The pathetic and sensational drama East Lynne, was presented by the Bogarte Dramatic club on Tuesday evening, November 5th. Recital hall was crowded with people who came to see the play and to help a worthy organization, the Y. M. C. A., for whose benefit the entertainment was given. Between the first and second acts Mrs. J. N. Roe rendered a vocal solo and responded to an encore. Between the third and fourth acts R. C. Lawrence sang a very laughable negro song, which was loudly applauded. To mention the work of any particular member of the cast would be doing an injustice to the rest, but suffice it to say that all performed their parts well. The receipts netted in the neighborhood of $30 for the Y. M. C. A.

CHICAGO COLLEGE OF DENTAL SURGERY.

DENTAL DEPARTMENT LAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY.

The new college building occupies a prominent position among a group of fourteen others, comprising medical colleges, hospitals and schools, and the clinical patients therefore are very numerous and interesting cases of every variety.

The lot on which the building stands has a frontage of eighty-five feet. It is a five-story and basement structure, the basement and the first story being of rock-faced Bedford stone, and the superstructure of pressed brick and terra-cotta trimmings.

The building has three entrances, the main one through a large cut stone doorway surmounted by a stone arch beautifully ornamented with carved work. The interior is finished in hard wood according to the latest idea of elegance, convenience and comfort.

The entire six floors of the building are divided into lecture rooms, class rooms, clinic rooms, etc., with the exception of the second floor, which is devoted to the dental infirmary. The chief lecture room has a seating capacity of four hundred and fifty students. There is also a dissecting room, thoroughly equipped with all the requisites for the study of human anatomy.

There are Histological, Chemical, Bacteriological laboratories, also laboratories for the study of Operative and Prosthetic Technics, and for the construction of artificial dentures.

The new building occupied by the Chicago College of Dental Surgery is, in all its appointments, one of the most perfect and complete of its kind in this or any other country.
