Index to The Journal of Tolkien Research Volume 1 though Volume 13 issue 1

The Journal of Tolkien Research, founded in 2014, has so far published twenty-one issues in thirteen volumes. This index is divided into four parts, 1) an index by author of the peer-reviewed articles; 2) an index by author of articles and conference papers not peer-reviewed; 3) and index by reviewer of book reviews; and 4) an index of books reviewed, by the book's author(s) or editor(s). In each issue every contribution is paginated individually. The twenty-one issues of The Journal of Tolkien Research are as follows:

- Volume 1, Issue 1 (2014-15)

The front page of the website has a drop-down menu by which all back issues can be accessed. This index supercedes two previous versions published in Volume 6 Issue 1, and in Volume 9 Issue 2, listed under "Anderson" in section II below. Some contributors have re-appeared using slightly different bylines (e.g., with or without a middle initial). Such entries are combined under one name.
